

Frontier Days Dance to Launch Lasuen Fiesta

Las Damas de Lasuen and the Padre Club of Fermin Lasuen High School have issued more than 600 invitations to harbor and peninsula residents for a gala Frontier Days dance on May 6 to initiate festivities surrounding the Fermin Lasuen Fiesta May 12, 13, and 14.

Dr. Andrew J. De Paolo and Mrs. Francis Leo Foley, Jr. of Miraleste, co-chairmen, have reserved the Yugoslav-American Club in San Pedro for the nine to one affair and have engaged Bill Byers and his orchestra to play for dancing. Under the direction of Mrs. Eugene Dunn of Rolling Hills the club ballroom and lounge will be transformed into an authentic early Western dance hall.

Round tables circling the dance floor will be covered with white cloths and centered with wax dripped candle holders and sets of outside dummy poker hands. A Conestoga wagon will backdrop the stage and Western trappings including saddles, Indian rugs, and "Wanted" posters will be hung from the balconies.

In the lounge area the 30 foot mahogany bar with brass rail will be decorated with a collection of antique bottles. Hosts in the carb of 19th Century innkeepers, prospectors, and cowboys with hostesses in bouffant gowns or calico and bonnets will greet guests dressed in a wide variety of Western attire.

Tickets for the Frontier Days may be obtained by calling Dr. De Paolo at TE 3-1520 or Mrs. Foley at TE 3-4527 or they may be purchased at the door.

According to Dr. De Paolo, proceeds from this event as well as those from the three day Fiesta to be staged on the Fermin Lasuen High School campus on May 12, 13, and 14 will benefit the library, athletic and operational funds of the school.

FRUMENTS
Unlike airline pilots, drivers can't fly blindly, warns E. R. Klamm, accident prevention director of Allstate Insurance Companies. The best "instruments" drivers have are their senses.

COVER FLOWER POTS TO ADD COLOR, CHEER

Plants and flowers are designed to add color and cheer to a room, but often the containers they're in detract from the room's appearance.

If your flower pots could stand some brightening, try covering them with a decorative covering material, that has an adhesive backing. All you need to do is cut the material to size, strip off the protective backing, and smooth into place.

Another good way to enhance your plants is with a flower box. Cover any box that is of suitable size with the same covering material, then set your plant into it. The Marvalon brand of coverings sticks to any clean, smooth surface and is available in a wide choice of colors and patterns, so you can mix, match or accent your room color scheme.

Plastic-coated covering materials are easily cleaned with a damp cloth.

Calypso Theme Gives Fashion Show Luncheon the Downbeat

Calypso rhythm on big steel drum will make a scene for clothes to come: Golden sands and banana trees... bright orange flowers and azure seas... Such will be the colorful musical background of the Las Madrecitas fashion-luncheon to be held at the Sheraton-West on May 13. Coco-Te and the Carribbeans will continuously bring to mind alluring settings for the dawn-to-dawn ensembles from the Pat Speer Shop of Malaga Cove, Palos Verdes. All fashion commentary will be done in calypso verse by Coco-Te.

Shades of tropical pink and orange will be used in all decorations, and hostesses will wear fruit-and-flower laden calypso hats as they welcome guests to the event. Preceding the luncheon, a social hour will be held in the Sheraton Patio.

Presented as fund-raising aids will be special prizes, including a visit for two at Desi Arna's Indian Wells Hotel in the Palm Springs area and gifts from Pan American Airlines. Las Madrecitas, an Auxiliary of the Crippled Children's Guild, will donate proceeds from the luncheon to the Pediatric Ward of the Orthopaedic Hospital in Los Angeles.

Co-chairmen of the even are Mmes. Eugene Eichler and Harold D. Leslie, Jr. Assisting them are Mmes. Hans Hansen, Richard Egan, Robert Friedson, R. R. Wilson, V. K. Anderson, Edward Sokolski, and William Willens.

SHEER MADNESS

It's sheer madness to let people drive who repeatedly scoff at traffic laws, according to A. E. Spatke, vice president of Allstate Insurance Companies. The eventual climax is always lives lost, bodies torn and millions of dollars of damage for which the public ultimately pays.
